

Form FOC 10 / 52

ORDER REGARDING SUPPORT (UNIFORM SUPPORT ORDER)

Use this form if:

- you had a hearing on your Motion Regarding Support (Form FOC 50) and both you and the other party (and a third party) agree to sign the order without another hearing; or
- you had a hearing on your Motion Regarding Support (Form FOC 50) and the other party (and a third party) will not sign the order; or
- you and the other party (and a third party) have agreed on the support and want the court to sign your proposed order without having to file a motion and attend a hearing on the motion.

Either Form FOC 10 / 52 or FOC 10a / 52a is also to be used along with Form FOC 89

By filling in this form and using the instructions, you are representing yourself in a court action regarding support.

In order to receive the action you seek, you must follow the instructions. If you fail to do even one of the required steps, the order you get from the court may not give you the support you want.

You will need to use your court papers for divorce, separate maintenance, paternity, or family support to fill out this Order form.

After you fill out the order form, you must file it with the court and serve it on the other party. Then you will need to attend the hearing. Read the instructions for these things and use the checklist to make sure you've done what you need to.

ORDER CHECKLIST

Use the following checklist to make sure you have done all the steps that are needed.

If you cannot answer "yes" to all the above steps, you do not have a valid order.

By using this form packet you are representing yourself in a court action regarding support. In order to receive the action you seek, you must follow the instructions in this packet. If you fail to do even one of the required steps, the order you get from the court may not give you the support you want. Note: Regardless of the amount of support you ask for, the court is required to use the Child Support Formula in deciding what support should be, unless the court finds that using the Formula would be unjust or inappropriate. If you filed the motion form FOC 50, you are responsible for preparing the order even if it is not what you asked for.

If you have any questions about any steps in the process, refer to pages 3 through 5 of this booklet for details.

What instructions are in this packet:

Pages 3 and 4 - Instructions for getting a stipulated (mutually agreed upon) order signed

Page 5 - Instructions for getting an order signed after a hearing

INSTRUCTIONS FOR GETTING A STIPULATED (MUTALLY AGREED UPON) ORDER SIGNED (when both parties have signed the order without a hearing)

»» SIGNING AND FILING OF ORDER

NOTE: A hearing on a stipulated order is not necessary unless the judge requests it.

1. Fill out the order form.

Use the instructions on page 6. Since there is only an original of the form in this packet, type or print neatly. Be careful not to make mistakes.

Make at least 5 copies of the form after you have filled it out.

2. Approval by friend of the court.

In some courts the order has to be approved by the friend of the court before the judge will sign it. Contact the friend of the court office and ask if the order must be approved by the friend of the court. Then do either step a. or b. below.

a. If the order must be approved by the friend of the court, go to the friend of the court office with the original and 5 copies of the order. Leave the order with the office. Someone from the office should tell you when to come back for the order or should call you when the order has been approved. If you do not hear from the office within 5 days, call the office to find out when to pick up the order. Go back and pick up the order. Then do step 3. below.

b. If the order does not need to be approved by the friend of the court, do step 3. below.

3. Get the order to the judge.

Since the other party or third party has signed the order, contact the friend of the court for instructions to get the order signed by the judge. Listen carefully to all the instructions for getting the order signed. Every circuit has a different way of handling the signing of orders. Ask when to come back for the signed order. If the signed order is sent to the county clerk by the judge, you won't have to pick it up.

4. Pick up the signed order.

If the other party or third party signed the order and you dropped it off for the judge's signature, go back and pick it up on the day and time you were told unless the judge sends the signed order to the county clerk for you. If you have to pick up the order, make sure you pick up the original and all 5 copies of the order.

5. Return to the county clerk.

Once you have the signed order (FOC 10 / 52 or FOC 10a / 52a), bring the original and 5 copies with you. The clerk will stamp the order, keep the original and 1 copy, and return the other 4 copies to you. The county clerk will deliver 1 copy to the friend of the court.

»» SERVING THE ORDER ON THE OTHER PARTY OR PARTIES

1. Serve the signed order on the other party.

The other party must be served with (notified of) 1 copy of the signed order.

NOTE: Serve the papers by mailing them to the other party by regular, first-class mail.

What you need for service:

- 1 Copy of FOC 10 / 52 or FOC 10a / 52a - for the other party
- 2 Copies of FOC 10 / 52 or FOC 10a / 52a - for proof of service
- Any additional copies of FOC 10 / 52 or FOC 10a / 52a - for other custodian or guardian if there is someone other than the other parent who has care or custody of the child(ren).

Mail 1 copy to the other party. If there is a custodian or guardian, mail 1 copy to them. Then fill out the Certificate of Mailing on the front of the remaining 3 copies. Keep 1 copy for your own records.

2. Return to the county clerk.

Once you have mailed the order and filled out the certificate of mailing on the remaining 3 copies, return to the county clerk's office with 2 copies. Remember to keep 1 copy for your own records. The clerk will deliver 1 copy to the friend of the court.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR GETTING THE ORDER SIGNED AFTER A HEARING

»» SIGNING AND FILING OF AN ORDER

1. Fill out the order form.

Normally you will fill out the order at the hearing on the motion. Use the instructions on page 6. Since there is only an original of the form in this packet, type or print neatly. Be careful not to make mistakes.

Make copies of the form based on the instructions on either page 3 of this booklet or in booklets for forms FOC 53 or FOC 54 depending on your situation.

2. Approval by friend of the court.

In some courts the order has to be approved by the friend of the court before the judge will sign it. Call the friend of the court office and ask if the order must be approved by the friend of the court. Then do either step a. or b. below.

a. If the order must be approved by the friend of the court, go to the friend of the court office with the original and 5 copies of the order. Leave the order with the office. Someone from the office should tell you when to come back for the order or should call you when the order has been approved. If you do not hear from the office within 5 days, call the office to find out when to pick up the order. Go back and pick up the order. Then do step 3. below.

b. If the order does not need to be approved by the friend of the court, do step 3. below.

3. Get the order signed by the judge.

After you have filled out the order, you must have it signed by the judge. If both you and the other party sign the order to show you both approve the order, then go to pages 3 and 4 of this booklet for further instructions on getting the order signed by the judge. Otherwise you must do either of the following:

a. Schedule and attend a hearing to get the order signed.

(Use packet for Form FOC 53, Notice of Hearing to Enter Order)

b. Notify the other party in writing that the order will be given to the judge to sign and that he or she has 7 days to file any written objections. If no objections are filed by the other party, the order can be signed.

(Use packet for Form FOC 54, Notice to Enter Order without Hearing)

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING "UNIFORM CHILD SUPPORT ORDER"

Please print neatly. After filling in the form, you will need to make copies.

All items must be completed before the order can be given to the judge for his/her signature. Then fill in the correct information for each item on the form.

Before you fill in the Case No., get your copy of the Motion (Form FOC 50 or Form 87) or your court papers for divorce, separate maintenance, paternity, or family support. Copy the Case No. from that paper onto both pages of this form.

Also use the motion or other court papers to fill in the "Plaintiff" and "Defendant" boxes. Copy the names from the motion or other court papers onto both pages of this form. For example, if your name is in the box that says "plaintiff," then you should write your name in the "plaintiff" box on this order form.

If there was a hearing, fill in the information based on what the judge or referee ordered at the hearing on the motion. If you and the other party are stipulating to the order, you have both agreed on what you want the court to order and have not filed a motion. Since there may not be a hearing, you must fill in exactly what you agree on. Make sure you include everything you agreed on. Anything that you do not write down on this form will not be ordered even if you and the other party had agreed on it.

If you filed a motion (FOC 50 or FOC 87) and the other party has agreed to sign the order without a hearing to enter the order, both you and the other party must sign the order. If the other party will not sign the order without a hearing to enter the order, follow the directions on scheduling a hearing in the booklet for form FOC 53, Notice of Hearing to Enter Order.

If you and the other party are stipulating to the order, you both must sign the order.

Some courts require the friend of the court to approve the order before the judge will sign it. To find out if this is required, contact the friend of the court office. If it is required, see either page 3 or 5 of this booklet for directions on getting the friend of the court's approval.

To find out how to get the order signed, see either page 3 or 5 of this booklet for details.

On the date you serve a copy on the other party, write in the date and sign your name on the remaining 3 copies. Return to the county clerk with 2 copies.

You must read this booklet and other publications, such as the Michigan Child Support Formula Manual and the Friend of the Court Handbook, for assistance with the legal process.

If you are receiving Friend of the Court Services, use form FOC 10/52 (pages 7 and 8 of this file). If you are not receiving Friend of the Court Services, use form FOC 10a/52a (pages 9 and 10 of this file).
